The Family Resource Centers (FRCs) provide individual and group-based family support services to parents/caregivers of children and youth (birth- age 24) who have or are at risk for developing emotional, behavioral, or mental health challenges, using a family and youth peer model.

FRCs provide to parents/caregivers and youth:

- Emotional support
- Advocacy to help navigate child-serving systems
- Information about mental health conditions, services, and family rights
- Referrals to appropriate services and resources
- Skill development through educational workshops
- Recreational activities
- Respite

All FRC services are free of charge, and no referral is needed to access services.

Warm-line: A phone line answered by a family advocate for family members, professionals, and members of the public to call with non-crisis questions and/or concerns
